ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Scitechseries takes pleasure announcing a “International Expo on Digital Health” (Digital Health 2024) with a special focus on “Redefining Innovation in Healthcare by Modern Technologies.” This event will take place during October 16-17, 2024 in Las Vegas, USA.

Digital health care we can support our ambition towards reducing inefficiencies in healthcare delivery, improving access, reducing costs, increasing quality of care and making our health services more person-centred, personalising medicine for each patient’s unique needs. It gives people the opportunity to be provided with “smart care” in a homely environment so that they could live in an independent style. It will explore the topics in detail, with an eye towards providing benefits and wellness leaders with practical guidance they can use to get the most out of digital health.

This event will support business leaders at the forefront of healthcare through our in-depth research and actionable insights to help navigate the most topical challenges impeding healthcare innovation. The conference roped in experts as keynote speakers. Make the most out of our panel discussions, poster presentations, tradeshow and exhibitions.
